Employer/Party II — Absent.

PANAJI: DATED: 20-2-1995

AWARD

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of Sub-Section (1) of section 10 of the I. D. Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947), the Government of Goa by order dated 18-2-1993 bearing No. 28/2/93-LAB referred the following issue for adjudication by this Tribunal.

"Whether the action of the management of M/s Bagai Golden Transport Co., Panaji-Goa in terminating the services of Ms. Meena Gonsalves, Accountant, w.e.f. 3-1-92, is legal and justified?"

If not, to what relief the work person is entitled?

2. On receipt of the reference a case was registered under No. IT/18/93 and registered A/D notices were duly issued to the parties, informing them to attend the hearing fixed on 23-3-93 at 10.30 a.m. On the said date, Party I-Workman (For Short "Workman") remained absent though she was duly served on the notice. The notice issued to Party II-Employer (For short "Employer") was returned unserved with postal endorsement "Addresse Left". Thereafter, the case was adjourned to 13-4-93. However, on the said date also, the workman did not attend the hearing and the case was adjourned to 15-6-93. On the said date, the case could not be taken up for hearing as my learned Predecessor Shri M. A. Dhavale attained superannuation and the case was adjourned Sine die. After I assumed the charge of the Tribunal as the Presiding Officer, the case was again taken up for hearing and fixed on 27-7-94 at 10.30 a.m. and fresh registered A/D notices were issued to the parties. The workman received the notice and attended the hearing fixed on 27-7-94 at 10.30 a.m. The notice sent to the employer was returned unserved with postal endorsement 'Left' and therefore, the workman was directed to furnish the proper address of the employer and the case was adjourned to 14-9-94 at 10.30 a.m. However, on the said date, the workman did not attend the hearing. Fresh notice to the employer also could not be issued as the workman failed to furnish the proper address of the employer. Therefore, the case was again adjourned to 12-10-94 at 10.30 a.m. On this date also, the workman did not attend the hearing.

3. The reference of the dispute was made by the State Government at the instance of the workman, as the order of the employer. Terminating the services is challenged by the workman by raising industrial dispute. It is a settled law that if a party challenges the legality of an order, the burden lies upon that party to prove illegality of the order. It was therefore, mandatory upon the workman to have appeared and substantiated her claim, that the order of Termination is not legal and justified. I am fortified in my this view by the decision of the Allahbad High Court in the case of V. K. Raj Industries v/s Labour Court (1) and others reported in 1981 (29) F. L. R. page 194. The Allahbad High Court has held in this case as follows:—

"The proceedings before the Industrial Court are judicial in nature, even though the Indian Evidence Act does not apply to the proceedings but the principle underlying the said Act is applicable to the proceeding before the Industrial Court. In a judicial proceeding, if no evidence is produced the party challenging the validity of the order must fail. It is well settled that if a party challenges the legality of an order, the burden lies upon him to prove illegality of the order and if no evidence is produced, the party invoking jurisdiction of the Court must fail".

The Allahbad High Court has further held that if the workman fail to appear or to file written statement or produce evidence, the dispute referred by the State Government cannot be answered in favour of the workman and he would not be entitled to any relief. I entirely agree with the decision of the Allahbad High Court.

4. In this case, as I have said earlier, the dispute was referred by the State Government at the instance of the Workman. The burden was, therefore, on her to prove that the order of termination of her service was illegal and unjustified. However, the workman inspite of opportunity given did not appear nor produced any evidence. Therefore, there is no material before me to hold that the order of termination passed by the employer was illegal or unjustified. In the absence of any evidence, it cannot be held that the order of Termination of service passed by the employer is illegal. In the circumstances, I hold that the workman has failed to prove that the action of the employer in terminating the service of the workman is illegal and unjustified and hence, I pass the following order:

ORDER

It is hereby held that the action of the management of M/s Bagai Golden Transport Co., in terminating the services of the workman Miss Meena Gonsalves, with effect from 3-1-1992 is legal and justified.

There shall be no order as to costs.

Inform the Government accordingly.
